Paying for Long-term Health Care

1. What is Medicare? (Types of services provided, how it is funded, who is eligible)
   See: http://www.cms.hhs.gov/MedicareGenInfo/

   Source of information:

2. What is Medicaid? (Types of services provided, how it is funded, who is eligible)
   See: http://www.cms.hhs.gov/MedicaidGenInfo/

   Source of information:

3. What was your state’s total Medicaid spending in the most recent year for which figures are available?
   See: http://www.statehealthfacts.kff.org/comparecat.jsp?cat=4

   Total spending:
   For which fiscal year (FY)?

   Source of information:

4. To find answers to the following questions, please use this resource:

   Source of information:

   • What percentage of long-term services and support in the United States is funded by Medicaid?
   • About how much do Medicaid recipients still pay out-of-pocket?
   • What financial support for long-term care is available for individuals of moderate to middle income?
   • What concerns about the current status of long-term care in the United States were noted in this report?