Directions: Prepare to write your non-fiction picture book for young readers by completing each section below. To gather details and quotes about how Luis or Miguel coped with his experience as a prisoner in a concentration camp, watch the related video clip again. You will also want to research and include relevant details about the historical context of these detention centers during Augusto Pinochet’s regime in Chile.

Main Character

I am writing this story about (circle one):
- Luis
- Miguel

What does he look like?

How does he respond to being a prisoner?

What motivates this response?

Setting

During what time period does this story take place?

Historical context:
Setting (continued)

Where does this story take place?

Sensory details that describe the setting:

Outline

Beginning/Exposition:

Rising action:

Climax:

Falling action:

Resolution/Lesson learned: